

The Emerald Forest

Corporate Meetings

Located just ten minutes east of downtown Redmond and nestled amongst thirty tranquil acres of our lush wooded private property. The Emerald forest provides a stunning backdrop for productive, engaging, memorable meetings.

The Emerald Forest is also home to the Emerald Forest Theater, built by Pete Nelson in 2018 and featured on an episode of Treehouse Masters.

Amenities

- Climb-In Movie Theater with 20-35 seats, depending on the configuration
- 16' Outdoor Movie Screen & Projector Projector is suitable for daytime viewing
- Stage -16'x13' ground-level stage between the theater and the screen
- Yurt - 24' (450 sq ft) with conference table and seating for up to 12 (comfortably) or up to 18 (compact)
- Gazebo & Board Room Table - 10'x10' gazebo along with a 10' 'Live Edge' conference table, seats up to 12
- Barbeque and Firepit
- Supplies Use of 750' Ziplines to Load Supplies In/Out
- Restroom facilities available

If you are looking for a tranquil getaway close to home, this is your spot! Part of its charm is that access to the forest is by an easy ten-minute walk on a flat forest trail. Note that because of this, we are not an ADA-accessible venue. However, all materials and supplies needed for your event can be transported via zipline for your convenience at a small additional cost.

Let us know what you need, and we will prepare a package for your business, family, or group.

The ideal group size is about 20 people; however, depending on the event, groups of up to 35 may be accommodated.
